Officials Named for Big Games.
NEW HAVEN, October 17.—Officials were announced last night for the Yale-Harvard and the Yale-Princeton football games as follows: Referee, William Langford, Trinity College; umpire, Niel Snow, Michigan; linesman, David Fultz, Brown University. These officials handled the Yale-Harvard game last year.

Mrs. Agnes Haveron, owner of the champion Milwaukee team, announces that she will make the training trip with the players next spring. That may be all right, and yet Mrs. Haveron has done very well by letting Harry Clark and Bill Armour look after matters this year.

LEAGUES DOUBLE UP

Double-Headers Rolled in Three Bowling Circuits.

ARCADIANS BREAK RECORDS

Three Marks Smashed by Them in
Arcade League—Nolan
Gets 160.

Three double-headers were rolled last night in the bowling leagues. The K. of C. of the Washington Gas Company and the Southwestern duckpin leagues staged contests in which four teams took part. In the two matches played in the Knights of Columbus League the Keane quint lost two out of three games to the Carrolls, while the Potomacs won three straight from the Spauldings. One hundred and eleven was the highest individual game rolled in the contest between the Keane and Carroll quint, which was secured by Repetti of the latter. Murtough, Burns and McLaughlin were the other men who had scores of more than 100 for one game.

E. Nolan, the last man for the Potomacs, featured the evening with the high individual game. He set about as high a mark as has been reached this year when he hit a score of 160 in his third frame. Nolan was way below that in his other two frames, getting only 97 and 85. In those he had been able to roll more than 100 in his first two frames he would have secured the highest set of the year. The nearest anybody came to Nolan was Mellon, one of his teammates, with 108 in his first game.

Altamonts Make Sweep.
In the first match in the Southwestern League the Altamonts took three straight games from the Grands, outclassing them by a good margin. The latter rolled two games of more than 500, while 452 was the highest score of the Grands. George and Keith led the Altamonts with high sets, each having averages of 160, though George got the highest set, rolling 127 in his first, while the best that Keith did was to get 122 in his third. Dameron was the only man of the Grands to knock down 100 pins in any frame. He got 103 in his first. The Lincolns took three straight from Parker & Bridget, though they did not have any scores as good as 200. The highest game was rolled by one of the winners, 98, 104 and 110.

The Installation department of the gas company defeated the Commercial office easily, taking all three games by big margins. In the second match between the two gas company league teams the West station made a clean sweep against the Distribution department. The third game was won easily, but the first two were taken by only six and four pins, respectively. The highest game was rolled by Cumberland of the West station five, by Cumberland of the West station five.

Arcadians Break Records.

The Arcadians had three good games to their credit in the Arcade League, being the only five in any of the circuits to pass the 500 mark in each frame. They registered 556 in the first, 512 in the second and 503 in the third. The team broke the record of the league for a high game, making 556 in the first frame, against 542 for the Bankers night before last. Lassa broke the high set record when he tallied 355 for an average of 118. Lassa's three scores were 320, 165 and 107. In the first frame, in which the Arcadians broke the game record for the league, four men rolled 100 or more. Lewis got 100 even, Watson, 114; Chacona, 96; Gull, 107, and Lassa, 130. Four of the five players secured marks passing the century in the two other games, but they were not as high as in the one mentioned. Noyes was high man for the Columbus, rolling 118 in his first game. The Arcadians won all three games. The total secured by the Arcadians broke the record for high set, 1,574 pins being recorded.

ENGLISH WIN AGAIN

Misses Dodd and Ravenscroft
Beat American Opponents.

MISS CURTIS SAVES DAY

Essex County Club Golfer Defeats
Miss Harrison of Ireland in Good Contest.

WILMINGTON, Del., October 17.—America and England will meet in the final match for the national women's golf championship to be played on the links of the Wilmington Country Club tomorrow.

In the semi-final matches today Miss Maria Dodd, British and Canadian champion, will play Miss Gladys Ravenscroft, who held the British title last year, while the other survivors of the third round, which was played yesterday, are Miss Marion Hollins of New York, metropolitan champion, and Miss Harriet Curtis of Boston, a former national champion.

There were times when Miss Dodd and Miss Ravenscroft were down, but when they got fairly under way they soon produced two more times their American opponents. Especially was this the case with Miss Dodd. At the first, for instance, the Moreton Club representative found the bunker on her second shot and taking two to get out could not get better than a 7. Mrs. Vanderbeck won the hole in 6 after another youngster in the opening event, which was for maiden two-year-olds. His Woodrow won all his holes and his price was 15 to 1. When it came to a drive today, Mrs. Vanderbeck, who rode Woodrow, got all out of the hole in 12, while the other two, who were in 14 and 15, were forced to work their way up on the outside. Carman's Water Lad ran a close second.

The second event, which was at a mile, resulted in an easy victory for Holland's Dartmouth. He went to the front on the backstretch and drew away into a long lead and was only cantering at the finish. Mary Ann K. finished with a rush after a belated start and was second. Colonel Pittman ran third. Colonel Ashmeade, the second choice, did not run his race.

Handicap Brings Out Best Field.

The six-furlong handicap brought out the best field of horses. It was the fifth race. Sir John Johnson, in with only 119 pounds, proved his worth again by winning all the way. Sir John was forced to do his best by Hallembeck's Azylade, and he did not let up for a moment. Sir John beat Azylade by half a length, with Hester Pryme showing. Captain Cassatt's Springboard, who has been winning the sprints, was not in the running at any stage of the race.

Long shots carried off all positions in the sixth race, which was at a mile and seventy yards. Spellbound won at 10 to 1, with Ella Grane placing and Ardolen showing. Bonnie Eloise, the odds-on favorite, and Noscedna, the second choice, were outclassed. The finish was one of the closest of the meet, less than a neck separating the first three horses.

Another odds-on favorite, J. H. Houghton, went down to defeat in the seventh race, which was at a mile and seventy yards, when Bedwell's My Fellow, the second choice, outgamed Houghton in the closing strides. Hester Pryme was third. The finish in this event also was as close as the preceding one.

The Summaries.
